Mahmutlar is the region of Alanya where the largest number of foreigners live, with more than 1,400 families. The district has all the social infrastructure for recreation and life.

Not far from the house, only 440 meters away, there is a public primary school, a little further two secondary schools, and a university. All schools take their children home on a special school shuttle service. The training is available to foreigners when they apply for a residence permit after acquiring a dwelling.

End of construction: May 2024.
