Description

Introducing a new investment project from a well-known developer in Demirtas, Alanya

Demirtas is the extreme eastern point of the city. One municipality is untouched by mass tourism. About 23 km east of the center of Alanya. There are still many undeveloped areas, banana plantations, and orange groves. A suitable place for rest and relaxation. Here, you will find a lot of greenery and streams. Near to the mountains with pine forests. From here, the road leads to the waterfall Sapa Dere (Sapadere).

Antalya Airport is about 155 km away, while Gazipasa Airport is only 17 km away. There is a regular bus service that will take you to other parts of Alanya. Taxi call buttons are also placed throughout the area.

Lovers of silence and secluded relaxation can enjoy the coast. The entrance to the water is sandy to rocky (there are different places along the coastline). The water here is crystal clear. There are few people on the beaches, so you can completely relax and recharge your batteries.

Our residential complex looks very harmonious in this eco-system, offering its residents all the advantages of living in quiet, non-tourist areas of Alanya. All necessary infrastructure is present.
