Description

Gazipasa is the name of a paradise hidden between the greenery of the Taurus Mountains and the turquoise tones of the Mediterranean Sea, a green necklace of banana orchards. This paradise, which is the last district of Antalya on the 180 km eastern border, has a rich history that has been home to various civilizations from ancient times to the present day, as well as its natural beauties. The mysterious caves of the past were a haven for pirates. The quiet paradise of Gazipasa is open to prospective tourism investors with its marina and small airport.
