Description

A new low-rise complex that combines European quality construction and decoration, as well as modern elegant design in the center of Alanya.

It consists of one block and a cozy area with a small internal infrastructure.

Within walking distance from the house there are shops, cafes, restaurants and other social infrastructure typical for the city center.

Taurus Mountains, Alanya - the warmest city in Turkey, almost tropical, not without reason bananas ripen here. At the same time, the heat is transferred much easier than in the same Antalya, due to the constant sea breeze.

Vacationers are attracted here by sandy beaches with fine-grained yellow sand. To the west of Alanya is one of the best beaches in the Mediterranean - Cleopatra Beach. The long city beach is no less popular.
