Description

Modern apartment from an investor in a residential complex under construction in the Gazipasa area.

Gazipasa is a quiet area in the city of Alanya. It is located on a flat area surrounded by mountains that protect from cold northern winds. An important advantage is the complete absence of industry, this is one of the most environmentally friendly places in all of Turkey. At the same time, the city infrastructure is well developed here: there are chain stores, cafes and restaurants.
