Description

These apartments provide an absolutely unique and attractive accommodation located very close to the historic old town of Dubrovnik.

This new development, expected to be completed in early 2023, offers the perfect combination of modern design, comfort and superb views of the old town.

The apartments have a total area of 140 square meters each, providing a space full of light and beautiful views.

Each apartment includes a garage space, which greatly alleviates parking problems in the city center.

In addition, residents are given the opportunity to choose finishing materials, allowing them to personalize the apartment and create a unique living space that suits their tastes and preferences.

This is an ideal location for those looking for elegant and modern accommodation in the historical surroundings of Dubrovnik.
