Location:

As one of the capital's most interesting districts, Berlin-Mitte combines famous sights, exciting leisure activities and varied gastronomy.

It's not for nothing that the international neighborhood is increasingly popular: in the immediate vicinity of unusual fashion stores, art exhibitions and important memorials and museums, Mitte has something for everyone.

Popular boulevards such as Oranienburgerstrasse, Torstrasse and the famous Friedrichstrasse are just a stone's throw from the residential address and attract both Berliners and tourists with numerous shops, cozy cafes, bars and a variety of restaurants.
