Description

A luxury high-rise building located in the heart of Thailand's grandest landmark in Bangkok.

This project is a unique combination of commercial, residential and entertainment spaces created in harmony with the surrounding tropical nature.

At the center of the project is a 30-acre rainforest, restored and developed by ecologists to create a sustainable ecosystem.

The commercial zone offers a modern medical center, shopping center and gallery, providing convenience to residents and visitors.

The high-rise building consists of one 44-story building offering a total of 122 apartments with stunning views of the forest.

Each apartment has its own elevator and functional layout, and panoramic windows offer stunning views of the surrounding nature.

The complex consists of luxury apartments spread over almost 4772.80 sq.m.

The project also features 24-hour security and video surveillance, as well as automated parking and guest parking.

From 2 bedroom apartments to luxury penthouses with private pools and gardens, these apartments offer spacious and stylish interiors as well as a high level of comfort.

Types of layouts:

- 2 bedrooms area 141.35 m2
- 3 bedrooms area 313.76 m2

Complex infrastructure:

- Fitness
- Children's swimming pool
- Treadmill
- Communal pool
- Coworking
- Spa
- Garden
- Yoga/meditation studio
- Children playground
- Fitness

The project provides over 200% parking to ensure convenience for all residents and visitors. The Forestias is more than just a place to live, it is a unique combination of luxury, comfort and nature in one of Thailand's most exciting developments.

The main complex is located along the Bang Na Trad road in the Bang Na district, approximately 7 km from the Sukhumvit road.

Bang Na is a developing and actively growing area of Bangkok. It is notable for being home to the famous BITEC (Bangkok International Trade and Exhibition Centre) convention center. In addition, it is also home to Megabangna, one of Thailand's largest shopping complexes, with over 400 stores, including the country's first IKEA store.

Additionally, there are other famous shopping malls in the surrounding area such as Central Bang Na and Seacon Square.

These areas have also seen significant infrastructure development. In June 2023, the Yellow Metro Line was launched, which will improve transport connections. The nearest MRT station is Si Lam Station, which is approximately 3 km away.
