Investment opportunities: The complex offers unique opportunities for investing in real estate at the early stages of construction, which allows you to count on capital growth of up to 25% during the construction cycle.

You can use the villa for personal residence for 3-6 months a year and rent it out in your absence, which will provide a stable income with a profitability of 8% to 13% per annum.

When renting through our management company, the income can reach 12% -17% per annum.

Investment plan:

- Price at the second stage of sales — $ 155,000
- At the third stage — $ 165,000
- After the delivery of the object — $ 180,000

The payment plan includes the following stages:

- First installment — 30% after signing the contract
- 30% — after pouring the foundation
- 30% — after the readiness of the structural elements
- Final 10% — upon delivery of the object

Construction began in July 2024, and the project is scheduled for completion in July 2025.

Individual conditions are provided for each client, as well as regular progress reports with photographs.

This project is not just an opportunity to buy a luxury home in Bali, but also a reliable way to invest with the prospect of high income.
